

Competition Terms and Conditions

1. Entry to the competition is made by sending a sms message to the published number. Only one entry per phone will be accepted, additional entries will not be counted but may still be charged.
2. Unless otherwise specified entry will be charged at standard network rate or may use any inclusive sms messages you have in your contract/bundle. SEPRAs does not receive any share of these charges and you are paying only for your network operator to deliver the message. Any dispute you have regarding charging must be taken up directly with your mobile operator.
3. Entries will only be accepted from UK mobile phones with numbers starting in 07. Entries sent from other mobiles and landlines will not be counted and may still be charged.
4. Entries must be received by the published cut off date. Any entries received after this date will not be counted but may still be charged.
5. The competition is not open to any current members of the residents association committee or anyone living at their address.
6. The winner will be drawn at random electronically after the cut off date. The winner will then be contacted to obtain their details. Before the prize is handed out the committee members will be asked to confirm that the winner is not associated with them. If an association is found another winner will be drawn. This process will continue until a legitimate winner is found.
7. By entering the competition you agree that the residents association may retain your details and use them to send you information that may be of interest to you. Any information sent will contain instructions on how to unsubscribe your details if you no longer wish to receive any correspondence.
8. Your details will not be passed on to any third parties unless required by law i.e. by the Police or a court order.
9. By entering the competition you agree that if you are the winner you will allow your name, street and a photograph to be published in the next SEPRAs newsletter and on the SEPRAs website.
10. Prizes are sponsored by local establishments who may apply certain conditions to their redemption. By entering the competition you accept these additional conditions.
11. All data is stored and used in accordance with the Data Protection Act.
